The Executive Team consists of a smaller group tasked with detailed planning, promotion, and execution of Stellar projects and initiatives, while the Advisory Team consists of the executive team and additional individuals that will help give advice, spread the word, and engage a larger part of the community through the Stellar projects and initiatives. A full list of Executive Team and Advisory Team members is available at www.stellarmadison.org and additional Stellar information will be posted as the projects move forward.

"We hope that everyone who is interested in advancing our projects will get involved by attending a meeting, signing up for the newsletter at www.stellarmadison.org, or just calling City Hall to find out how to help," said Mayor Damon Welch.

Madison was awarded the Stellar Communities designation in October 2017 by the Indiana Office of Community and Rural Affairs. Stellar Communities is a multi-agency state partnership aimed at helping communities reach their goals.
